OUR BUSINESS IS TO PROTECT YOUR BUSINESS

Boyle & Feinberg, P.C. (BF) are talented, seasoned, and fierce individuals who come together as a divorce firm known to protect our clients' rights. Partners Janet E. Boyle and Joy M. Feinberg are widely regarded as two of the most effective divorce attorneys in the greater Chicagoland area. The accomplished associate attorneys at BF are following in the footsteps of Janet and Joy, developing their reputations for excellence, knowledge, and integrity.

We are here for you

We commit ourselves to providing the highest level of service to every client. Our main focus for our clients is to obtain favorable results based upon the client's desire. We create a bond with our clients ensuring them that we are here for them every step of the way during this difficult time of their life. To make your decisions confidently and wisely, a trusting relationship with your family lawyer is essential. Our family lawyers and staff understand how you feel today, and what you'll be facing tomorrow. We represent men, women, the highly compensated executive; business owners; or their spouses, and the stay at home parent. We understand all perspectives.

Professional advice for your unique situation

Every divorce has its own specific characteristics. We will prepare you and your case; engage in negotiations on your behalf; effectively handle your unique issues; and define the range of settlement. Our goal is to safeguard you, your children, your business and your assets — now and in the future.

Years of knowledge and experience

BF provides you with an exceptional team of recognized experts in whom judges, opposing counsels, and other professionals have confidence and respect. We assign a partner, associate attorney, and paralegal best suited to the facts of your case to effectively represent you. Our team is at the leading edge of the law, helping to create and interpret it locally, nationally and internationally. For your divorce needs contact Boyle & Feinberg, P.C. to arrange a consultation and see how we can make the business of your divorce easier for you.
