Re: Videos

Dear Dan:

We just wanted to take this opportunity and thank you and your wonderful team for all of the work you did on the videos for our website. You all went out of your way to make this as painless as possible for our Firm.

It was especially helpful that your company, Divorce Marketing Group, understands divorce, family law and family law attorneys. You were very helpful in your suggestions about the topics for the videos. You were also great to understand our schedules and work so efficiently in the actual taping of the videos.

From beginning to end, Divorce Marketing Group, took care of us. DMG planned the video shots, suggested relevant topics, helped with location choices in our office and even advised how to dress. We really appreciated the interactive work on the text for the introduction to our Firm and the FAQ's by editing our copy and making it more understandable to the public.

On the actual day of the shoot, you and your team put us completely at ease. You were all so calm, easygoing and efficient in your work. We especially noticed the attention to detail we received in every way to ensure that you were presenting our Firm in the most professional manner possible.

We have received many compliments on the videos and have been told how much they enhance our website. If we engage in further "acting" jobs, you will be the first people we call.
